To celebrate the 82nd anniversary of the discovery of the Lascaux cave in France, the PAS art room was transformed into a "prehistoric cave." Students crawled into the dark cave with flashlights and learned about the history and discovery of Lascaux. Students also used mortar and pestles to make their own paint and painted on large paper, which will be added to the cave walls in the future.

DCP Academy

Dancing Classrooms Philly doesn't have to end after the ten week in-school residency. All DCP residency graduates are invited to participate in our DCP Academy, which takes place on Saturday mornings during the school year. Classes are held at convenient and accessible locations in Philadelphia, including St. Christopher's School in Northeast Philadelphia, CHI Movement Arts Center in South Philadelphia, and the University City Arts League in West Philadelphia.

DCP Academy Participants receive more advanced instruction in the dance from the fifth grade syllabus, along with an introduction to new dance from different cultures. These lessons nurture confidence, motivation, discipline, and performance quality. More importantly, Academy continuing education classes provide children with an opportunity to meet peers from other schools and develop lifelong friendships. They also provide exposure to the civility, social manners, and elegance expected in adult life.

For more information and to register, email Andrew Polunin, DCP Academy Coordinator. Be sure to regularly visit our Events page for upcoming DCP Academy In-Studio Performances!

This Fall, socially-distanced classes will be offered at our West Philly – University City Arts location on Saturdays. Covid-safety precautions will be in place.

To pay for Academy classes online, use the button below!

DCP Academy participants who wish to go even further in their dance studies may audition for the DCP Allstars. Ensemble membership is comprised of seventh to twelfth grade students from around the region who have found an inspiring and transformative passion in ballroom dance.
